Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Friday 27 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry, with variable cloud. Feeling warm in the sunshine.

Today:
Early fog and low cloud may persist in northwestern coastal areas but lifting inland. This leaves some cloudier zones with an isolated light shower but some warm sunny spells elsewhere. Feeling cool near breezier east coasts and in cloudier regions.

Tonight:
Dry with variable amounts of cloud for most regions. Thicker low cloud and fog for some NW coastal areas. Scattered showers in the far southeast. Chilly in the clearer areas.

Saturday:
Most areas dry with sunny spells and feeling warm by afternoon. Some eastern coasts cooler, the odd shower in the southeast. Low cloud and fog in coastal northwest UK.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Remaining fine and dry for most with the best of any sunshine and warmest temperatures in the west. Cloudier and cooler for eastern parts where it will be breezy.
